Testimonial of Dr. Danny Ker

Dr. Danny Ker has been a great mentor in our pursuit of the ISO9001 journey. He has supported us well during the implementation of our quality management system.

Dr. Danny Ker is an excellent trainer. His training session is practical, interesting and informative. He is able to bring out the essence of the ISO9001 requirements through practical and relevant examples making the training sessions lively and interesting.

In addition, his guidance in our ISO9001 journey has enabled us to obtain a good external audit report from the external certification body.

Last but not least, Dr. Danny Ker is an approachable and helpful person. He is always willing to listen and offer his help to anyone who approaches him for advice.
